Arts Alive Drama Camp is a performing arts day camp for creative kids between the ages of 9-12 or going into 4th-7th grades. Arts Alive fosters an encouraging atmosphere of creativity, learning and fun! It helps to draw out the natural gifts and talents of children to help them create something magical, professional and fun! During the week kids will learn basic performing skills in drama, music, staging, movement and what it takes to put on a show. They will work together to help write, create and produce their own musical, which will be performed for family, friends and the community at the end of the week!

Creator and founder of Arts Alive Drama Camp, Sally Hollenbach, has been a professional singer, songwriter, recording artist and musical theatre performer for over 25 years (Grant & Sally, Ministries, Inc., former member of national touring company Re-Creation USA, Writer for Songs for the Planet in Nashville, TN, has recorded 14 Albums, 9 Videos & featured in many musicals & plays). Sally has a BA in Voice & Music Theory from Ashland University and is The Ohio Theatre Director.

We'll also have other professionals joining us as special guest instructors throughout the week!

Cost is $90 each for early registration or $100 for late registration if space is still available. (2 or more children per family will be $85 each for early or $95 each for late). Cost includes professional instruction, materials, snack each day, 1 complementary ticket for the Friday show, DVD of the show (will receive at a later date), and an Arts Alive 2019 T-shirt! Kids will need to bring a sack lunch each day and may need to help provide costumes. Early registration deadline is May 31st, 2019. Final registration deadline is June 30th, 2019 (earlier if spaces fill up). It WILL sell out early, so please don't wait! Get registered right away! Possible scholarships available. Contact Sally for more info.
